Greetings Valued Volunteer!

Thank you for your commitment to helping the runners at the Silverton Ultra Dirty. You are the BEST part of the Silverton Ultra Dirty! Without YOU, your energy, creativity, love, and support, this race would not be near as fun. You make it unique, and the runners appreciate you more than you know. Your commitment and support help the runners get to the finish line. You are a vital part of each runner's success as well as their safety.

What you will receive -

- Volunteer Shirt
- If you are an aid captain, you will receive a comp entry for a Dirty 30 Trail Race Series Race entry. If you volunteer at least an 8-hours, you will receive 50% off your Dirty 30 race entry fee.
- Race swag

Mandatory Volunteer Meeting -

Please mark your calendars now. We require all volunteers to attend at least one of the two volunteer ZOOM CONFERENCE CALL meetings. We will email a zoom link a few days before the meeting.

- Aug 2 – 7 pm
- Aug 3 - 7 pm

If you must cancel -

Your presence on race day is vital, and we are counting on you. Please only sign up to volunteer if you are committed to showing up. If something unexpected arises and you cannot show up, please give as much notice as possible. Additionally, please let us know if you know someone who can fill in for you.

Know before you go -

- Read the website thoroughly. The more informed, the better you will navigate the weekend and help the runners out.
- Please understand when and where you need to be, and all other details to carry out your job at least a week before the race.

What to bring . . . be prepared -

Backpack with:

- Face mask
- Water bottle
- Warm hat & sun hat
- Gloves
- Warm coat & raincoat . . . layers. It is cold in the morning and night and could rain in the afternoon.
- Camera – please take pictures and share them with the race director, Megan.

- Snacks if you are a course marshal
- Maps of the area and where your volunteer post is located

Thank you for sharing your time and talents with us. I very much appreciate you.

With Gratitude,
Miss Megan
Race Director
